

David Lee Holland

April 12, 1933 - June 9, 2008

David Lee Holland was called to rest on June 9, 2008. He was born on April 12, 1933 in Cleveland, North Carolina to the late Lucille Parker and Asalea Holland. He was preceded in death by his wife, Lillie Bell Holland and both parents. David was educated in Richmond Public Schools and graduated from Armstrong High School. In his early years, David gave his life to Christ, and was baptized at Morning Star Baptist Church in Richmond. David was a gifted photographer and was well known in the Richmond area for excellence in the trade. After retiring from photography, David owned and operated several Highs Ice Cream Stores in the city. David loved meeting people and making new friends, so his second retirement job was driving taxi cabs. He would spend his day chatting with those he met with along the way. David kept pictures of family in the cab or close by so he could tell those riding with him who was who in his family, and who was doing what. David was a very special and fun loving man who faced life head-on. He always had a joke to tell, a song to sing (though he made up some of the words) or a deep theory he was working on that he wanted to share with the world. To know him was to love him, his laughter, warmth and caring ways will always be remembered. Those left to cherish his memory are his daughters, Kim Williams(Walter) and Faye Smith, sons, Donnel Jones(Carolyn) and Steven Smith(Katrina), 14 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, one sister, Rev. Wilhemenia Parker-Cunningham(Robert), two brother-in-laws, John Webber(Roberta) and James "Pete" Webber(Eunice), as well as a host of relatives and friends. His neighbors at Carter Woods Retirement Apartments and Samuel Pryor are counted among his devoted friends.

Tribute Wall

“ David Lee Holland

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am going to miss David telling the story of how he brought me to Richmond. Some say that he was suppose to have had two sisters. I am going to miss him so. However, I will always remember to story and the way his face lite up when he told it. I love you all and if you need me just holla. :~)###imported-begin###Enid R. Mayes###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that you lost your loved one. Losing someone you love is so hard to come to terms with, and is a most painful thing to go through. God didnt desire such saddness for us. Adam and Eve caused us all of this heartache, but lovingly Jehovah took steps to straighten out the mess they put us in. By their disobedience they lost out on eternal life for us, their offspring. So God sent his son Jesus to undo all of the hurt that has been brought upon us. That is why the bible tells us at 1st Cor 15:22, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. Yes through the precious blood of our saviour, Christ Jesus, people who have fallen asleep in death will be raised back to life. At John 11:25 Jesus makes this wonderful promise: "I am the ressurection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life. I hope that you find much peace and comfort from God"s promises, and may he give you the strength to carry on until his words have been fulfilled.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Kim and Faye our prayers are with you and your family during this time. May you find peace and comfort through each other.##imported-begin##Eric & Deneen Hunter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM