“ Dear family, please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Death is truly a heartbreaking situation for the loved ones left behind. We all want to know, why did our loved one have to go. In God\\\'s word, the bible, he gives us the answers as to why we die, and also promise a time when sickness and death will be no more. Please read Rev.21.3.4, Isaiah 25,8, and John 5,28,29, which tells us about this wonderful hope. Acts 24,15 also lets us know that there will be a ressurection of the dead. May the thought of one day being reunited with your loved one bring comfort to your heart during this time of bereavement, and may your precious memories, which death cannot destroy help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
