“Dave was my favorite ccousins... and still is. And will always be. I love all of my cousins but Dee Dee and Dave were my hearts! I miss conversations and joyous times with them...We grew up together! There's almost nobody left that's our age. But most of all, I thank God that we're going to see them again! Thank you Jesus!!

“My mind can not comprehend the loss of my dear friend. We worked together at Bank of America many years ago. We talked just last year and literally picked up where we left off. My heart breaks knowing that my friend has transitioned. Equally, I am overjoyed that he is resting in the arms of God. Joy and Cory were the love of Dave's life. I pray for their strength to soldier on without his guidance.
