

David James Parker

October 30, 1939 - October 14, 2013

DAVID JAMES PARKER, SR. was born in Lenora Co. North Carolina on October 30, 1939 to the late Willie and Mary Parker. David moved to Baltimore, where he met and married Hilda Parker. Out of this union came seven children.

David was a quiet dear person, as well as a kind and faithful husband and a compassionate helpful and concerned father who would quietly go to the extremes to help his family or anyone with whom he came in contact with. He was a dear person who had a positive approach to life. He could be objective, helpful, respectful and kind all at the same time. He was a dear person who had a positive approach to life. He could ease another heartache by setting aside his own.

He believed that Jesus Christ was his personal Savior. He worked at Maryland Shipbuilding & Drydock and Baltimore City Community College for 33 years. He will be truly missed, but not forgotten. He left an imprint on us all.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Hilda Parker, seven children: David Jr.; Mary Parker; Michele McClendon, Anthony Parker, and Carol Parker, the late Michael and Harold Parker, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, two sisters Wilimary Thomas and Dorothy Carmon and many friends.

“ *To the family of David James Parker:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
