David's Memorial Tree

Although we have not made time for public reflections, we encourage you to share your thoughts and memories of David with the family and each other. David, at the time of his passing, had become a USDA Master Gardener; he was immensely proud of the plants he'd grown, and he expressed a deep love of and profound fulfillment in keeping his garden.

To memorialize him, we'll be planting a tree in his honor in Washington, D.C. We'd like to surround that tree with memories of love, happiness, humor, and joy. So if you have a memory of David that you'd like to memorialize, please choose a pebble from the table, hold it tight in your hand, and mark it with a symbol of your love – a drawn heart, a name, or a brief phrase. These pebbles will protect and surround David's growing tree, and will serve as a monument to the growth he nurtured in all of us, here on earth.

David's remains will lie in state in the chapel until the family departs. A repast will be served afterward in the adjoining hall.
