

David T. Crawford

April 6, 1939 - October 13, 2002

David T. Crawford, son of the late Russell Douglas McMillian and Essie B. Crawford, was born on April 6, 1939 in St. Pauls (Lumberton), North Carolina. He departed this life on October 13, 2002 at 4:15 p.m. at his home in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education at St. Pauls High School in North Carolina and graduated in May 1956. He then moved to Baltimore where he found a career in which he loved and enjoyed the Mass Transit Administration (MTA). He married the former Sara Richardson, and out of this union two children were born, Joyce and Tracey. Most people knew him by the names "Dave" or "Shag." Dave enjoyed meeting people and making jokes. He was always the same, no matter who you were. David was always ready to tell a joke and make you laugh. He would help any and everybody. If you called on him, he was there. He felt life was too short so he was going to enjoy every moment-now! He did what he wanted to do and was happy with what he did. He made up his mind there were things he wanted to do no matter what everyone else thought he was going to do just that. "Dave" was happy just being "Dave," "Shag" was happy just being "Shag." He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Sara Crawford; one daughter, Ms. Joyce Briscoe; one son, Mr. Tracey Crawford; three sisters, Ardelia Howell of Baltimore, Maryland, Ida Humphrey of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Loistine Williams of Texas; two brothers, Walter McMillian of Fayetteville, and James Claude McMillian of Lumberton, North Carolina; two grandchildren, Corey and Montoya Briscoe; one daughter-in-law, Robin Crawford; closest of friends, Mr.

Claybourne Black and Mr. Thomas Goslee; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He also leaves many close and devoted friends.
