

David Thomas

November 26, 1953 - November 22, 2002

David Thomas (Bobby), as he was known by many, was the son of Jean Fletcher and the late Robert (Sonny) Blackwell. David was born on November 26, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. David received his education through the Baltimore City Public Schools. He obtained his G.E.D. through the State of Maryland and furthered his education at Morgan State University where he majored in General Studies in 1979. David, being as determined, devoted and dedicated as he was, served in the United States Army where he later received an honorable discharge. Over the years, David held various jobs, one of which was his job at Woodland Job Corps in Laurel, Maryland where he counseled young adults. At the time of his departure he worked at the Master Lumber Company in Owings Mills. David was a very generous, loving and outspoken person who loved to dance and sing oldies but goodies. He was full of intelligence, admiration and was respected by many. In 1999, David accepted the Lord Jesus Christ in his life as his Lord and Savior and often gave testimonies to family and friends about how good God has been in his life. David leaves to mourn: his mother, Jean Fletcher; his wife, Kim Thomas and daughter, Mia Thomas; his stepmother, Florence Blackwell; a sister, Rosalind Curtis; two brothers, Anthony Hollands and Michael Blackwell three special aunts, Joan Bowie, Rosetta Thomas and Gladys Blake; a devoted partner, Cecelia Williams; one special cousin, Kenneth Hickson, known as "Prince Charming" by David; and a host of other relatives and friends.
