“ My prayers go out to the entire Womack family. David will always be remembered for his kind heart, calming spirit, and most of all a smile that would light up a room. May you find comfort in knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw David's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All" the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

I hope these words serve as encouragement. Remain loyal and keep serving God; you will see David again!

“ Family and friends of David, so sorry to hear about loss. May you have comfort that we have the promise from God at Revelations 21 :4 which says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more". What a comforting thought. My prayers are with you and your family.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
