

Davol L.H. Langley

September 11, 1963 - September 9, 2013

Davol Loren Harvey Langley, son of the late James and B Sherlene Langley was born September 11, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of four children. He was called home to be with the Lord.

He received the Lord at an early age at Memorial Baptist Church and later served the Lord for many years at Jerusalem Baptist Church; where he was ordained to the Deacon Minister. He was a devoted and faithful man of God. A few of his favorite scriptures was Psalm 91 and Ephesians 3:20; and one of his favorite songs were "My Times" by Lashaun Pace.

Everywhere he went he loved to spread the gospel and his love for the Lord. He enjoyed ministering to the youth especially young males to show them that there is a better way.

He graduated from Baltimore City Public School System and Loved being a trucker and owened several trucks and his own company (Lanco Trucking). He loved training and often would take young men in their times of need on daily trucking runs. He would always say "If a man don't work he don't eat." He always had a quote for every occasion which he picked up from either his Heavenly Father or earthly father.

Davol loved all his family especially his two daughter Arreal and Dynesha. He was serious about his love for the Lord and being saved. He made sure his girls knew the Lord and how much he loved them. He loved traveling and taking his girls on family vacations. He was also an active member of the PTA. He enjoyed talking on the telephone and he would always end with "And talk to you later, Love you, Bye Peace".

He was a loving father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend. He would often have heart to heart conversation with his nephew, their friend anyone who needed an encouraging word. His nieces' children and adopted children were his entourage on many trips to the Crofton Co Kart track, movies and other adventurous outings.

He leaves to cherish his memory two loving daughter Arreal Langley and Dynesha Langley (a soon to be son in law Myron Nelson); three beautiful sister Mary Langley-Edwards, Joni Gummer, Donna Webster, three brother in laws Victor Edwards, Terrance Gummer, and James Webster, six nephews Taie, Jimmy Deveron, Dante, Jason, and Charles; five nieces Joy, Jani Tairyn, LaShawn (who preceded him in death) and Stephanie; several special brothers and friends; oldest god child Michelle Walker, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephew, god children, and friends.

“ Davol,
You were the best GodBruva I could have ever asked for, no matter the time of day you would always give me a call to check on ur "lil sister"...you told me over and over how much you knew that I truly loved you, not just in Christ but as your lil sister. My heart aches right now but I know when my time comes I will see you again at those pearly gates in heaven. So for now I will just cherish every memory we had and have even down to the last day we talked in church. I will dearly miss you Big Bruva, You Know I love you Right!!!!

“ Deacon Davol i will always remember the compassion in your heart towards others. You always had a smile on your face and joy in your heart. I know that it will be hard for me to be in church and not see your face, recieve a hug, or hear the words, You Know I Love You Right? God has a blessed soldier who was willing to give his all and he gave just that.
You had a heart of Gold and Blessed Presence. Thank you for being the drive behind the Youth and Young Adult Choir and Jerusalem Baptist Church. May you enjoy all the rewards for being saved and assured your love, your word, and your heart will never die. It will live on for Eternity. I will always keep a special place in my heart for you and the Candle will burn forever!!!!!!!!!!!! This Battle is Over and you shall rest now and enjoy the land of Milk and Honey. I love you and until we meet again.....

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

“ May Jehovah God continue to comfort all those who loved Mr. Langley. We can all look forward to the time when death will be no more (Revelation 21:4) and instead of tears of sorrow there will be tears of joy because of never having to be without our love ones. I know he will be missed by many. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy.

“ I remember when I came to church after a while and I went to altar call and Davol walked up behind me and looked at me and said I'm proud of you. And I started to cry and he wiped a tear from my face and I started to ball out cry and he cried with me holding my hand saying , let his will be done. I have known Davol all my life and to see him in church a changed man and spitting the word of God the way he did knowing his heart was genuine and always willing to help anyone in need. I will always remember you in the best of light. Rest easy Davol you with Daddy now as he would say. God was his Daddy. We loved you but Daddy loved you best. Always and Forever Davol Langlely 2013

“ Davol became a good friend to me in 2006. He looked out for me from the beginning! To meet him only once & to speak to him twice before my car accident, you would have thought we've been friends forever the way he had his friends look after me!! He visited frequently reading the word & praying with me & my visitors!! I thank God for meeting him through my Uncle Ricky!! I thank God for him looking out & taking care of me, a mere stranger!!! I'm grateful for his brutal honesty...lol...(I would tell him to be honest, but I needed him to be a little softer with his approach)! Most of all, I was blessed to have met a remarkable angel of a man in the most crucial time of my life to assist to guide me in the word & to intercede in prayer, on my behalf !!!! To the family, my prayer is for Jesus to wrap his comforting arms around you & to bring you all peace that surpasses understanding!!!!

Condolences to all who loved and are saddened by this loss. The bible has a hope for all. It is at John 5:28-29. It is a promise from Jesus that we will see our loved ones again. Jesus said that dead ones will be brought back to life in God's new system. That will be wonderful. For now cherish the memories of Mr. Langley.

My condolences go out to the family and friends of Davol. I grew up on Aiken Street with Davol. Our mothers were very close. We played together as children and watched each other grow into adults. His warm smile and tender compassion for others is what I will always remember. He never met a stranger and was a true friend. He will be missed by all. Revelations 21: 3,4 gives us hope that one day all sickness, tears and death will be gone away from us. So, Davol with his heart of gold I will remember our long talks, laughs and all the memories of long ago.
