

Davon Lamont Anthony

August 12, 1992 - July 30, 2014

Davon Lamont Anthony arrived from the father's house to Rachel Atkinson and George Anthony, Jr to join his earthly family on August 12, 1992 But due to an unjustly truck incident he was escorted home by one of the Father's Archangels on July 30, 2014

Davon was not a man of many words, but when he spoke you knew exactly what he meant Children love to be around him to play and talk. He was attending night school to began a new and better life for himself and his son Tracen.

Davon always liked to hang out with his cousins and friends to play basketball, joke and do pranks, He loved family gatherings because he could visit with everyone and he knew we had lots to eat.

As we gather to celebrate his voyage, he leaves behind to remember his life his son Tracen; mother and father Rachel and George, Jr siblings Andrew, Shawana and Kelly, niece and nephews Davion, Shamyra and Austin; sister - in - law Tisha; 5 aunts, 5 uncles and a host of cousins, family and friends.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the entire Anthony family. Death is so unnatural. But in the bible, we read of a time when death will be no more. Sickness and death will be a thing of the past. We will no longer cry in sorrow. In fact in the bible book of Matthew we are told there will be a time when our dead loved ones will be ressurected.
