

Davon Rashad Daniels

October 3, 1987 - January 2, 2018

Davon Rashad Daniels was born October 3, 1987 to Davin and Pamela Daniels in Richmond, Virginia. He was called to the Master in the heaven above to receive his crown of glory on January 2, 2018.

He received his General Equivalency Diploma (GED) in the Offender Aid and Restoration (OAR) Program. Davon had a love for shopping, music, writing and rapping.

The self-ministry that he created was being a mentor to young men. He did not neglect doing good for the young boys in his neighborhood who were less fortunate for back to school and sharing what he had. Davon knew that with such sacrifices God is pleased. He always looked out for friends who were in need and made everyone feel loved. Davon made everyone happy even when he wasn't happy himself. He had a joyous spirit and always laughed. He also was a huge 49ers fan. He was a people person and especially loved children. Davon will be remembered for his glorious smile, love of family and a strong faith in God. Davon was a wonderful son, brother, nephew, cousin, and step-father and friend that adored his family.

Davon would want to be remembered as a loving, kind and considerate person, but most of all being the flyest young guy anyone knew and for being the best father to his step-children. Davon was indeed one of the most precious gifts God has given us.

He was called home to the pearly gates of heaven to unite with his loved ones that preceded him grandmother, Thelma Taylor; aunt, Darlene Harris and uncle, Joe Harris, Jr. Davon leaves to cherish his loving memory a loving parents, Davin and Pamela Daniels; five siblings, Arsenic Harris, Rakeem Harris, Deja Daniels, Diondra Daniels and Davin Daniels, Jr.; four nieces, DeOnni Allen, D'Moni Allen, Antonio Bragg, Jr. and DeArri Daniels; five aunts, O'Lillian Sow, Sharon Daniels, Shannon Daniels, Cheryl Daniels and Bishop Regina Taylor; his beloved girlfriend and companion, Alexis Barbee; step-children, Kamyla Hill and Vincent Hill, Jr., two beloved family friends, Edward Peters and Tanyelle Hunter; a host of cousins, other close relatives and dear friends.
