

Davon Robinson

November 4, 2008 - January 25, 2012

Davon Isaiah Robinson, son of Amanda C. Robinson and Montrell Foster , was born on November 4, 2008 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called his little Angel home on January 25, 2012. The trumpet sounded and heaven's gates opened.

Davon was too young to receive his education, but was yet a bright young boy. Davon was as cute as pie and could brighten up any room with his smile. Behind the smile, he had attitude as well. His personality would keep everyone in laughter. Davon loved to dance and listen to music. He also loved to play football and basketball. He enjoyed spending time with his mother, Amanda, his "Ga ma" , his aunties, Mariah, Priscilla, Daisia, and Jeaneathia and cousins Angel, Kavon, and Devon.

Davon made numerous friends wherever he went and touched the lives of many. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true loving son and grandson and he was also a "Mommy's boy". His favorite foods were french fries, hot dogs, pizza, and noodles. His drink of the day had to be milk. That's how he got his nickname, Milkboy.

Davon received his Christian baptism on the 25th day of January in the year of our Lord, 2012 by Reverend Betsy Baer. He preceded in death , his grandparents, Annetta Robinson, and Jerry Bethea.

Davon leaves to cherish his fond memories; mother, Amanda Robinson; father, Montrell Foster, grandparents, Janetta Yerby and Marlo Foster, great grandmothers, Clotie harris, Barbara Sutton, Martha Mundell; Godmother, Kellie Robinson; aunts, Mariah, Priscilla, Jeaneathia, Shareice, Lakeda and Amanda; uncles, Kelvin, Kevin, Markeese, Malik, Michael and a host of other relatives and friends.
