

Davonte K. Rouse

August 13, 1992 - June 30, 2023

Davonte Keyon Rouse, also known as Mook was born on August 13, 1992, to Nicole Rouse of Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life Friday June 30, 2023.

Davonte received an early education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Where he created many memories and formed many bonds. Davonte received his diploma from New Spiritual Foundation Christian Academy High School. Davonte recently received his CDL's and was excited to get on the road. Davonte was a strong independent person who could always be counted on to show up for his children, friends, and family. He enjoyed spending time with his children and his children loved him unconditionally. He could always be seen with one of his children when he was outside, so much so that everyone who knows him knows each of his kids. He was a funny person who you could always count on to brighten up your day. Davonte was known for riding dirt bikes, he was so good at it that his friends gave him the nickname 1'O Clock Mook also known as Tunchi. He loved listening to music, driving and playing all day. He was never without a car and often had more than one. He wanted to succeed in being his own boss and starting something generational for his kids and loved ones. Anything he did or had going on he made the best of it. Anyone who knew him was blessed by his presence. Davonte's infectious smile and laughter will truly be missed by his family and friends.

Davonte was preceded in death by his grandfather, John Rouse; great-grandmother, Eloise Thomas; grandmother, Agnes Mazyck; uncles Donald Rouse, Colin Mazyck, Anthony Cooper; and cousin Tiya Otugo.

Davonte leaves many loving memories to be cherished by: his mother Nicole, his Children Amauri, Ayden, Ahmere, Malayah, Carter; siblings, Daneasha, ,Alijah, Bump, Rhynn; Grandmother Joyce Rouse; Aunts, Erica, Vanessa, April, Brenda; Uncles, Rick, Robert, Edward, Antonio; and a host of loving relatives and friends.
