

Dawron J. Johnson

July 23, 1967 - December 21, 2022

DAWRON J. JOHNSON, affectionately known as Dukie, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 23, 1967. He was the son of the late Cynthia Johnson and Julius Henson. Dawron entered eternal Glory and rest with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on December 21, 2022.

Even as a child, Dawron loved making people laugh and telling stories. Though he had a slim physique, Dawron loved food. He also enjoyed watching sports. One of his favorite enjoyments was spending time with his grandchildren.

Dawron attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He was later employed at Rockland Industries. Dawron was popularly known in East Baltimore for working at the Quality Hand Car Wash, a neighborhood car wash on Federal Street.

Throughout his adult life, Dawron often attended church with his father Julius Henson. Dawron surrendered his life to Jesus Christ. Dawron's passing saddens those whose lives he impacted. But the fact that he knew God and accepted Jesus Christ as His Lord Savior is a blessing to all who love him.

Dawron leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Julius Henson; two daughters, Michelle Wright (Ontario) and Tiara Johnson; five siblings, Tina Craddock (Derrick), Slim Berry (Tracy), Keisha Berry, Joshua Henson and Jessica Henson; three grandchildren, Nia Carter, Logan Wright and Zowii Johnson; two aunts, Ramona Rhyne and Princetta Johnson; a special devoted aunt, his “Aunt Zelda”; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Dawron joins his relatives in Glory who preceded him in death: his grandparents, Mary Agnes Henson, Edward and Elizabeth Johnson; great-grandparents, Sarah and Jerome Johnson; and his aunt, Bernadette Seymore.

Dukie will live forever in our hearts.
