“ This has been so so hard for me. You was my first baby that I did not give birth to. I love you like you was my own and made sure to always tell you I love you. I will miss your hugs and the I love you and you telling me I was your second mom. I just keep seeing you in my head as a little boy going to hair school with me and all the girls having you dance while they sing “ Go Day Go Day” and you was dancing your heart out. I will remember telling you I was having a baby and taking you shopping with me to pick out baby stuff to later learn you was hiding the stuff because you did not want me to have a baby because you thought I would forget about you. Guess what I never did even when you got older you still wanted to come spend time with me and treated my kids like your little sister and brother. I am so so going to miss you and was not ready for this. Most importantly I will miss the hugs and kisses on the cheek every time we seen each other. Get your rest and rest peacefully. I know it’s selfish to ask God why you, but I will forever cherish the 35 years that we had with you. Love you more then you knew. Rest well 🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰🥰

“ DayCondre’ I love you so much. You will forever be in my heart and I will love and cherish you forever. I thank God for the 35 years he allowed us to share. Watch over us as you always have and know you will never be forgotten. Mommy’s little man I will miss your hugs and warm embrace that I received every day. You told all of us you loved us everyday and I still can see you saying it to me with that big warm smile. Your kids will always be loved and taken care of and reminded of how much you loved them. R.I.P Son and know that you will always be loved and cherished in our hearts forever. My Little Man, Mommy💛💖

“ I remember when I first met you. DaeDae you had the most beautiful smile and kind heart. I was very fond of you and always told you I love you and would hug you. I glad i got a chance to see you once again the Wednesday before God called you home, I got to hug you and say I love once more Take your Rest. And Sleep Peacefully. If you see Jodeci give him a hug for me. Continue to watch over your mom and family ✨🕊️👑
