“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as the 'last enemy'. This becomes even more painful when it involves someone so young. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon he will by means of his son Jesus, bring our enemy 'to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and the promise that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm3:11,29). Warmest regards.###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult especially when they are so young. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
