DAYVON EVERETT BROWN

I was born on September 18, 1987 in Baltimore, MD to Aliceson Ragland and the late Leroy Brown. I was raised in West Baltimore and Middle River. As time went on I grew into a young man and went from Dayvon to Blaze, the best gamer online. I loved playing video games with my friends. I graduated from Kenwood High School. Life was great and I started my career as a forklift driver at Under Armour Curtis Bay. I always made an impression everywhere I went.

The End?

On October 22, 2022, who knew I would be here writing my story and saying my final goodbyes to my family and friends? First and foremost don't mourn me. Celebrate the life and legacy of Dayvon E. Brown. I am up here with Pops, Grandma, Aunt Netta, Mr. Eddie and Mooch and the rest of the crew.

Before I go, I want to leave my legacy to my mom Aliceson; sister, Alicia; brother, Stacy; nieces, Ailea and Autumn; nephew, Alexander; aunts, Francine (Jeffrey), Christine (Ernest), and Joyce; uncle, Kevin; cousins, George (Rachel), Tamika (Ondrai), Demetria, Kierra, Kevin Jr., Kevron, Tiara, Tramaine, Taniya and Amir, and a host of other family and friends.

To my mom, I love you and appreciate you. To my sister, I am proud to have been your brother. I love you always and don't let my name fade. To my aunts and uncles, I love y'all always. To my cousins, its been real but I've gone to a better place. To the rest of my family and friends, I had fun down there but I am done. I am moving on. I will miss y'all.

I touched so many people, in so many ways so please don't mourn me until you join me. Until then, my story has come to an end.

Signing off, Dayvon
