

Deacon Oliver Windell Harris

November 16, 1926 - April 9, 2017

Born in Mecklenburg Co., Virginia on November 16, 1926 to Richard & Mary Simmons Harris. When called to duty in 1945, Windell proudly joined the U.S. Army and served his country in WWII. He was a cement finisher by trade, an avid gardener and a real Mr. Fix-It.

Shalom Baptist Fellowship Church held a special place in Windell's heart where he unselfishly served as a Deacon until his health declined. He was the last of the original founders of this church. His compassion for Christ, his family and his church family was obvious in his conversations.

Windell was a faithful member of the Commonwealth F & G Masons. Oliver Windell Harris was a humble man with an overly generous heart and he will be missed by many.

“ *Uncle Windell,
Thank you for remembering Bunny and I. It was great seeing and visiting with you at our family reunion. It meant a lot to have you meet my family. R.I.P.
Love,
Arneda*
