

Deacon Thomas Graham Wilson,

November 12, 1949 - December 1, 2009

Thomas Graham Wilson, III of Charles City, Virginia was born in Richmond on November 12, 1949 to Lillie Mae Johnson Wilson and the late Thomas (T.G.) Wilson, Jr. He was the first of four children (Elliott Oliver, Elaine Celestine and Clyde Alonzo). He departed this life on December 1, 2009 after a tragic accident on his 60th birthday. In his youth Thomas (Tee) joined Union Baptist Church in Charles City, VA. As a young man he loved hunting and fishing with his uncles and grandfather...this love of deer and squirrel hunting he shared with and passed on to his son, Tommy. Thomas also developed a love for math and electronics and pursued an associate degree in Drafting at John Tyler Community College. In 1994, Thomas was united in holy matrimony with Joan Elaine Armstead, and embarked on a loving Christian marriage. “ T as I called him loved the Fall of the year. I would go with him to hunt for Wild Turkeys on the property that his grandmother - Mama Sis owned. We would sit for hours waiting on a Turkey to come by. But we would have to talk very quietly as he put it so noit to scare the turkey away. I write this just to let Donovan, Tu and TC know that Meme remembers their MR. GrandPa and miss him also. Mr. Grandpa -Tu is now to the age where he understands more about death and what it means. He was crying Monday night and said that he misses you. They are our three GREATEST joys. And I love doubly as much. Continue to REST IN PEACE. Talitha aka Meme

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
