“ To the family, I offer my sincere condolences. Although several months has passed, we never forget our loved ones, and we miss them more with each passing day. MY heart goes out to you in your sorrow, but know that when we hurt Jehovah and Jesus are hurt too, because they care so much for us. 1st Peter 5:7 John 3:16. When we lose a loved one in death we can't help but say, why did this have to happen to my family? It's understandable that we feel that way, because death is such a horrible thing; the bible calls it our worst enemy, because God created us to live, not to die. 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." When that glorious day comes we will shout a joyous shout, because Rev 21,4 promises that at that time God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away. Will we really see our loved ones again? Notice John 5:28,29 which says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." What a wonderful hope that is. May you find much comfort in the holy scriptures until Wilhelmin opens her eyes once again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief. However, there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation"(2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Job 14:14,15 lets us know that Jehovah has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's Word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
