

De"Andre Lamar McCullough

May 23, 1977 - August 1, 2012

De'Andre Lamar McCullough, son of Denise Fran Boyd-Andrews and the late Gary Castro McCullough, unexpectedly received his eternal rest suddenly on Wednesday, August 1, 2012

De'Andre sometimes called "Andre", "Onion", or just "Dre" received his education in the Baltimore Public School System completing ninth grade. Knowing how important education was to his mother, De'Andre accomplished his G.E.D. And managed to take general courses at Baltimore City Community College. He enjoyed working with juvenile boys, showing them what to do and what not to do. He worked for Mountain Manor for a few years as a Peer Counselor then years later as a Mental Health associate at Bons Secours Hospital.

De'Andre had smile that would light up a room with his presence. He enjoyed being with his family and friends and played jokes all the time. He had a funny sense of humor and could make you laugh even when you were mad at him. Mad wasn't something that you could easily do with De'Andre because he wouldn't let you. Anywhere De'Andre went you could easily do with De'Andre went you could make you laugh even when you were mad at him. Mad wasn't something that you could do with you could easily do with De'Andre because he wouldn't let you. Anywhere De'Andre went you could be sure to find a journal with him. He enjoyed writing poems especially about his own experiences with life. His life wasn't a happy one so he tried very hard to turn it into something positive by expressing it on paper. He one day hoped to have his poems published for all to see.

De'Andre became a father at a very age and dedicated his life the best he could to his son De'Ante. He always tried to show De'Ante honesty and how to be real man one day. He adored him and felt bad when he couldn't do more. De'Andre was very family oriented and nothing stood in the way of his mother's Sunday Dinners and Holiday Feasts

He was always the life of the party. De'Andre also looked up to his uncle Kwame. They were close in age and grew up side by side. In fact every other word that came from De'Andre's mouth was Kwame. The one person that he tried to protect the most was his little brother De'Rodd. De'Andre and De'Rodd were very close and he made sure that nothing happened to him. De'Andre was also a "Momma" Boy, there was not one day that went by that he didn't call on his "Momma" for advice or to just get on her nerves.

De'Andre had numerous friends and has touched many lives, young and old throughout his life. Even though life wasn't very happy for De'Andre you could still count on him for a good laugh. Ed Burns and David Simon depicted his story in a book called "The Corner" in which he also touched many lives. De'Andre would call on uncle David and he would be right there for him. De'Andre just had a way of getting what he wanted. He will be deeply missed.

De'Andre was preceded in death by his father Gary Castro McCullough Grandparents Roberta McCullough; Charles and Mary Boyd three Aunts Penny, Bunchie, and Sherry Boyd; and an uncle Stevie Boyd. His big smile and loving memory will always remain in the hearts of those he loves

. He leaves behind , his memory Franc-Boyd-Andrews; Stepfather Donnie Andrews, his two sons De'Ante McCullough and Kason Taylor. One brother De' Rodd Hearn, one sister Ariel McCullough Tyreeka Freamon. A host of uncles, Aunts, cousin, Nieces, and friends.

Cemetery Details

Private

Previous Events

Memorial Service

AUG 7. 11:00 AM (ET)

Bethel A.M.E. Church
1300 Druid Hill Avenue
Balto., MD 21217

Tribute Wall

“ De"Andre Lamar McCullough

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ God bless

Steve - July 03, 2022 at 07:01 PM

“ RIP Dre You Was A Good Dude

Larry Worthy - July 28, 2015 at 03:10 AM

“ Too one of the strongest Ladies that I have ever known Condolences to you fran...Even though odds was against you... You still was worth a great is mothers on this planet You helped inspire me to leave a man that was on drugs. Sorry for the loss of your husband. May God be with you always and you keep on keepin on sunny - January 10, 2014 at 11:35 AM

MS

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - August 11, 2012 at 02:23 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - August 02, 2012 at 06:23 PM

MS

*Dear Fran & Family,
We are truly sorry for the passing of your dear son, DeAndre. You are in our prayers. We pray that God will strengthen you doing this difficult time as you continue to lean upon Him.
Love always,
Cousins Mike & Dianne (Worthy) Spencer*

Mike & Dianne W Spencer - August 06, 2012 at 08:43 PM

BW

*Dear Fran and Family,
We here at MCAT, send out our prayers in time of your bereavement.
We pray your strength in such a time.*

*Bless You,
Brenda Fulton, MCAT and staff*

Brenda Waller-Fulton - August 07, 2012 at 12:50 PM

JW

Dear Fran...Our prayers are with you and the family. DeAndre's artistic talent will always be remembered. Please know we are keeping you lifted up in prayer.

*Love,
Joyce Worthy-Wilson (Aunt Mae's daughter)
Atlanta, GA*

Joyce Worthy-Wilson - August 07, 2012 at 01:06 PM

PM

My Dearest Fran,

I knew Dre' for an on off period, he was a brother that I knew had a lot on his mind. His memory is with me truly that he believed in helping others. Dre, get your sleep as you needed it the last time I saw you.

You will be dear missed, if you see my dad up there let him know that I miss him so much. As him to show you around, what normal people do up there.

Percy.

Percy Madanda - August 09, 2012 at 04:28 PM

MA

My sincerest condolences to you and your family Fran for the loss of D'Andre. His was a story that deeply affected me here in Sydney, Australia and no doubt he is sorely missed by those who love him the most.

Much love to you and yours, and again my heartfelt sympathies

Marty (Sydney, Australia)

Marty - November 04, 2012 at 09:40 PM

CY

Fran, so deeply sorry.I wish I knew something else to say. Deandre had a mother who loved him everyday. Even through the awful times. Some people never get that at all ever. And DeAndre had that all his life. God Bless You. And know people you don't even know exist have you and your family in their thoughts and prayers

Carol Yake - November 29, 2012 at 10:18 AM

I WOULD SEE HIM ON THE CORNER..I CALLED HIM SPIDER MAN..THE WAY HE WORE HIS HAIR..LOOKED LIKE A SPIDER..HIS SMILE WAS AS BRIGHT AS THE SUN..BUT INSIDE DARKNESS.WAS THERE..HE WAS SMART FUNNY AND A BUSINESS MAN WAY TOO EARLY...SAW HIM YEARS LATER IN THE CORNER THEN IN THE WIRE..WOW..A STAR GONE DIM..RIP SPIDER MAN

Barbara Sloan - May 20, 2017 at 01:56 PM

NO

I just watched the corner today .I didn't know that you and your mom had passed but RIP to the both of you.im quite sure y'all touched a lot of lives with your story

Nancy Marie ONeal - July 13, 2024 at 06:53 PM