

Deatrice Malone

December 2, 1961 - November 11, 2005

DEATRICE MALONE was born December 2, 1961 to the late Laura Bell Malone and the late George Lomax. She departed this life after a short illness. Deatrice, who was known as "Stinky Girl" to many and "Dee" to others, was a loving, energetic person with a great personality. Dee went out of her way to help anybody and she got along with everyone she met. She was a very strong person who loved life very much. Deatrice was a loving and dedicated mother, sister and aunt who devoted her time to keeping her family together. She was also a peace maker. Deatrice was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked at the Baltimore City Jail and held various other jobs over the years. Deatrice's favorite pastime was playing cards, pokeno and bingo. She also loved shopping and having fun with family and friends. She was Hecht Company's "Queen" of shopping. Deatrice joined the United Baptist Church earlier this year where she received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. Deatrice's son Marlow West and long life companion Burt Turner, preceded her in death. Her grandparents, Coley Malone Sr., Lillie Mae Malone, Clarence Lomax and Carrie Lomax also preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Delvin Tanner; two sisters, Wanda Brown and Latefa Dorsey; two brothers, Anthony Malone and Earl Austin; one niece, Laura Malone; two nephews, James Bennett and Jamar Dorsey; one sister-in-law, Anita Austin; eight aunts, Josephine Pack, Cora Curtis, Olivia McNeil, Elizabeth McMillan, Lillie Mae Edwards, the late Barbara Lomax, Joan Lomax and Theresa Covington; four uncles, Eugene Malone, Coley Malone,

Willie Malone and William Covington; four great-aunts, Sallie Dorsey, Elizabeth Bennett, Pauline Lee and Irene Chase; and a host of cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I want to tell Deatrice's family ,that you have my deepest sympathy. Deatrice was truly a sweet and loving person. She will be missed but never forgotten. It is hard for us to understand why things happen, to the ones we love, but we have to trust in God....Deatrice's Friend and Delvin's Aunt Gwen##imported-begin##Gwen Woolfolk##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family of Ms. Malone. As you look back on the fond memories of Deatrice, here's a scripture that can help you to look forward to the future with confidence: Isaiah 25:8, "He will actually swallow up death forever." The time is fast approaching when death and all other plagues of mankind will be done away with, as noted in Isaiah 65:17-25. May these words comfort you & your loved ones in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##
