“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I was checking the guestbook to send my condolences to people who have lost loved ones in death. I couldn't help but notice how beautiful Deatrice was and how young. It reminded me of my son who was only 29 when he died in 1997. I sure miss him] as i'm sure you miss Deatrice as well. What keeps me going is the comfort of the scriptures and the sure hope of the ressurection. One day soon we will be able to see our loved ones again. Revelation 21;3)4 says that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. I hope the bible comforts you as it has done me. You have my prayers and sympathy.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I would like to express my sympathy for your loss. Though a stranger to your family, I'm no stranger to the pain death causes. The pain cannot be compared to any other pain. Please have comfort from the holy writings of our loving Heavenly Father. He no doubt knows your pain; he too lost someone in death and as all powerful and Almighty as He is, He can relate to what you're feeling. At Isaiah 25:8, He promises us; " He will swallow up death forever..." So no more will be have to feel the affects of this enemy, death. Also, at Isaiah 26:19 He promises; "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." How wonderful a time that will be. It'll be like a world-wide family reunion; seeing those who we have lost many years ago as well as recently. Please compare these scriptures to your copy of the bible and see these truths firsthand. My prayers are with your family. Take care.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ To The Family: Please accept my condolences. You don't know me, but when I noticed how young Deatrice was when she passed away, I just had to send you a comforting promise. That promise is from Daniel 12:13- "And as for you yourself, go toward the end; and you will rest, but you will stand up for your lot at the end of the days." This loving promise from God assures us that our dear loved ones will "stand up", will be brought back to life in God's new world. I hope this brings you much solace until this promise takes place in the very near future.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Caldwell, I want to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a person in death is unnatural because Jehovah God did not make us to die. Scientists cannot figure out why people die because of the way our bodies are made. However, our Heavenly Father promises to give us comfort in our time of need because at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it states that he is the God of all comfort. Another way he comforts us is by the hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of a resurrection; by the hope of life on earth in a paradisaic condition. All these promises are laid out in the scriptures. Please take the time to read these promises found at John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:10,11. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
