

DeBarco Edison (Gypsy)

August 21, 1922 - July 18, 2002

Debarco Nan Edison was born on August 21, 1921. She departed this life on Thursday, July 18, 2002 at Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, Maryland. DeBarco was the fifth of eight children born to Frank F. and Nannie L. Johnson. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland and received her education in the Baltimore city public School system. She married the late Herman Jones, and this union was blessed with two children, Herman and Sandra. Later she married the late Earl Sherman Edison and was blessed with five children, Peggy, Judy, Michael, Christopher and Faith. She also reared two grandchildren as her own, Tyritta Gilliam and Christopher Isaiah Jones. DeBarco was a dedicated homemaker who loved to decorate and obsessed with cleanliness. She did private duty nursing, in addition to caring for many friends and family. DeBarco focused on building a stable life for her children, affording them many opportunities. She would describe her life's best work, and most important accomplishment as the finished product of her children, who affectionately referred to her as Mamma. DeBarco leaves to mourn; two sisters, Goldia Ellis and Marcella Mitchell; four daughters, Sandra Taylor, Peggy Campos, Judy Lee and Faith Edison; two sons, Michael and Christopher Edison; two daughters-in-law, two sons-in-law, twenty-one grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and many dear friends. Although, as a family, we are saddened by her death, we celebrate and honor a long and fruitful life.
