

Debbie Ann Stallings

January 20, 1964 - March 7, 2015

Debbie Ann Stallings was born January 20, 1964 to Vivian and Stewart Stallings in Richmond, Virginia.

She was educated in Richmond Public Schools. She leaves to mourn her loss, her mother, Vivian Stallings, daughter Darshall Stallings, son, Lamont Stallings, brothers; Stewart and Kevin Stallings and sister-in-law; Ursuala Stallings, a host of uncles, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

Debbie joined The Mount Carmel Baptist Church and became active as a member of the choir, Ushers Ministry and other organizations as well.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid out you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ I couldn't believe my ears when I was made aware of Debbie going home to see our Father. Debbie, Kevin and I had some great and memorable moments growing up together. Debbie and I worked together later in life. Debbie kept us in stitches at the office and I knew I would have a great day when we worked on projects together. I knew her well, but lost contact with her when she left the job. I will say this about her; SHE LOVED HER KIDS AND ALL SHE DID WAS TALK ABOUT THEM AND HOW MUCH THEY KEPT GIVING HER A REASON TO MAKE IT ANOTHER DAY. Rest in Paradise Debbie and I know you are up there getting them going. Blessings to the Stallings family and especially her babies. Darshell, she used to tell me that she was so proud of you and how she knew you were going to be something great. Keep that and know that she may be gone in the flesh, but she will always be here in our hearts.

“ To the Stallings family: I'm sorry for your loss. The Bible tells us why we die but also gives us a comforting hope that a resurrection will occur and death will be destroyed forever. 2 Cor. 15:21-22 says, "For since death came through a man, resurrection of the dead also comes through a man. For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. Verse 26 "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing."

May you be comforted by these words. Please accept my condolences.
