

Debora L. Jones

April 8, 1955 - September 5, 2007

Debora L. Jones (also known as Bunny), daughter of John Johnson Sr. and Etha Johnson, was born on April 8, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 5, 2007 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Walbrook High School in Baltimore. She worked for College Manor Retirement Home for twenty years before going into private duty nursing. During this time, she received her Certified Nursing Aide diploma from the Stratford Institute. She was also a faithful member and Missionary of Victory Ministries International. She married twice, and out of these unions her three daughters, Geisha, Ciera and Rosalind, were born. Debbie made numerous friends and acquaintances wherever she went. Everyone who knew her will sincerely miss her kind spirit, generosity, and willingness to help. She was a hard worker, true friend, dedicated mother, and devoted family woman. She leaves to mourn: her daughters, Geisha Clay, Ciera Clay, and Rosalind Jones; her father and mother, John and Etha Johnson; one sister, Vontia Johnson; two brothers, John Johnson Jr. and Nedrick Johnson; one daughter-in-law, Rashima Williams; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Rest in Peace, my friend.

Gale - September 19, 2025 at 05:38 PM

“ Debora L. Jones

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hi ! Jones ! I would like express condolences condolences to you all. Losing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for you all. Just imagine the great joy to be our when the dead are resurrected in the near future as John 5:25-28. I hope these few upliftings thoughts will be be great to read and share. May all the happy times shared with Debora stay close to you all hearts in the jounery of life .##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, please accept my most sincere sympathy. She had a beautiful smile, and I'M sure you miss her very much. Many people wonder did God mean for us to suffer such pain and sorrow associated with the death of a loved one. Being a student of the bible, I have come to learn that our God is a God of love who never desired sickness or death for his earthly childre. That is why one day the beautiful words of the Lord's prayer will come true. God"s kingdom will come, and his will will be done on earth; Just as it is in heaven. We can imagine the peace that is part of heavenly life, and Jehovah purposes that the earth will have the same peaceful conditions in the very near future. At that time there will be no more crying, and no more dying. Those who have already passed on will one day hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of those memorial tombs to a ressurection of life. May those bible promises comfort you in the days ahead. John 5:28,29###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My family sends their deepest sympathies. May the Lord strengthen you in your time of need. The Cockrell Family###imported-begin##Shannell Cockrell###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ We would like to express our deepest sympathy for the loss of your Love one. This is a road that our family knows well. So we want to share some verses from the Bible that helped us and prayfully it will somehow ease your sorrow; PSALMS 55:22, John 5:28&29, Revelation 21:4. We pray that Jehovah GOD will keep your family close to him and give you the strenght to endure. Luv Always##imported-begin##George A. Lashley & Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM