

Deborah A. Everette

August 30, 1952 - October 21, 2009

DEBORAH ANGLITE EVERETTE, affectionately known as Debbie, was born to the late Edith and Clyde Gibbs on August 30, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. Debbie received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Houston Woods High School #181 in 1973; where she majored in Interior Design. Later she attended Airco Technical Welding School, where she graduated second best in her class. Debbie was a welder and worked at E&G Classics and Vulcan Hart over the past twenty-three years until she became ill. On September 9, 1977 Debbie married Thomas Everette, her childhood sweetheart whom she met in the fifth grade. Their union bore two sons, Thomas and Kelvin Everette. Debbie had a big heart and a warm smile, which earned her the recognition of being an “angel” and the “greatest mom” any one could ever have. These sentiments are expressed not only by her sons and grandchildren whom she loved dearly, but by many to whom she was a mother and counselor too. Debbie loved going to church and praising the Lord! Debbie was a very strong woman who fought each and every fight to the end; giving up was not an option for her! Even facing death, her thoughts were not of herself but of those whom she loved. Debbie departed this life on Wednesday, October 21, 2009 due to a lengthy illness. She leaves behind to cherish her love and memory: her husband, Thomas Everette; sons, Kevin and Thomas Everette; two sisters, Ruby Davis and Theresa Gibbs-Gaynor; three brothers, Tyrone, Connell and Eric Gibbs; three grandchildren, Cameron Simpson, Brittany and Tiffany

Everette; grandmother-in-law (100 years old), Mary Stewart; mother-in-law, Jerlean Everette; one daughter-in-law, Alicia Everett and Novelle Joyner; three brothers-in-law, Rodney and Reggie Everette and Elbert Gaynor; very special friend, June Purnell; very special niece, Tamika McLeod; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Deborah A. Everette

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May the God of all Comfort provide the family with comfort at this time. Death is never easy to cope with because it creates a void no human can fill. However our Almighty God promises to fill that void through a resurrection he promises at Acts 24:15. He also promises to restore the earth to a beautiful paradise to be inhabited forever at Psa 37:10,11. Isa25:8 he tells us he will swallow up death forever. May these few scriptures bring hope, faith and comfort at this time.##imported-begin##T. Taylor##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us @ Ecclesiastes 3:11-Even time indefinite he has put in their heart.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ When someone we love dies, God wraps us in a tender embrace while we mourn. In time, we emerge a new being, comforted by God's mercy and restored by His love. May God's infinite love be very real to you, especially now. May God bless this Family.##imported-begin##Michelle Randall-Davis##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ The Everette Family Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel right now!!!! And I know from experience, that when we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word or even one more touch. We may not understand why our loved ones leave this earth before we were ready to say good-bye. But little by little, we begin to remember not just that they passed on..., but that they lived! And that their life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. And memories I believe,... are like stars. I mean...there's are just so many of them. But, perhaps they're not just stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones, pours through and shines down on us to let us know that they are happy and at peace. Although it's very difficult today to see beyond the sorrow,...may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. And also may you take comfort in knowing an angel (Debbie) is watching over all of you with that infectious smile. And I pray that your memories will give you strength and the belief,...that this is not good-bye!...It's...see you later! We all grew up together and formed a life long bond that will last forever! May Jesus wrap all of you in his arms and comfort you. Carla Tarleton-Williams Los Angeles, CA###imported-begin##Carla###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the Everette family. The loss of a dearly loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also Daniel 12:2 states, "many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends of Ms. Everette you have my deepest sympathy. Its hard to face the lost of a love one, for I too lost one of my parents in death. But even though this a painful time may you take comfort in knowing that soon Jevhoah God will swallow up death forever (1 Cor. 15:26) May you continue to rely on God Word for comfort and continue to read his word daily##imported-begin##D. Farmer##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ No words of sympathy can ease the loss you bear, still may find some comfort in the thought that others care. I was very sorry to hear of the passing of Debbie. Although, we lost touch with each other I've always thought about her, how she was doing, what she was doing, but one thing for sure, I never wonder who she was with. Even as teenager growing up, I and everybody else knew that you and Debbie would be together forever. I am so happy she had someone like you in her life through the good times and the rough times. Thomadean, I was not able to attend the funeral, but I want you and the family to know that you all are in my heart and prayers. As I sit here writing this to you, and thinking back to our teenager days I feel no I know that I have lost a sister too. love gloria cain-munden philadelphia##imported-begin##gloria##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ By the time I knew it was too late. One of my best friends is gone, and I didn't get a chance to say goodbye. You meet alot of people in life that you like, but there's only a few that you love. I will miss you very much. I'll see you when I come to Heaven. Love always, Big Neice##imported-begin##DENISE MONROE-GLADDEN##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM