

Deborah Ramonia Brown

July 22, 1956 - June 11, 2024

Life's Legacy

Ms. Deborah Ramonia Brown was born on July 22, 1956 in Richmond, Virginia to Ms. Maxine Davenport Andrews and Mr. Clarence Restee Lurry. She was preceded in death by both of her parents and her brother Anthony "Tony" Davenport. Deborah departed this life on June 11, 2024, at her home peacefully after battling a state of declining health since 2022.

Deborah was affectionately called by close family and friends who knew her best by "Ramoniamonia". She was a person who would care and give love to everyone that crossed paths with her. She grew up in Gilpin Court in the Jackson Ward area. Deborah graduated in 1974 from Thomas Jefferson High School, Home of the Vikings.

Deborah was baptized at a very early age and continued to walk in the footsteps of the Lord until the day she succumbed to her illness. She attended Goodwill Baptist Church of Richmond, Virginia for over 15 years where she was a dedicated member through actions of singing in the adult choir, teaching Sunday school and more.

Deborah was a passionate employee throughout her life as a driver and held several driving positions with various companies. Deborah had a career with Richmond Public Schools, Waste Management, GRTC and at her death an employee with Henrico County Public Schools as a bus driver. Deborah was the life of the party, and you would frequently find her cooking, dancing, making jokes, laughing, and living her best life.

Deborah leaves to cherish her loving memory two devoted daughters, Nicole Johnson (Eldridge) and Christian Harrison; adored granddaughter and grandson, Kimora Harrison and Kiyan Clark; devoted brothers, Darrell Davenport and Gary Hill; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and devoted lifelong best friends Tracy Jackson, Janet Tyler, and Faye Nelson, along with a multitude of other dedicated friends.

Ramonia you will be forever carried in our hearts and minds.
Fly high sweet baby,
how lucky we are to have had someone so special,
makes saying "goodbye" so hard.

“ Deborah, we always called Ramonia..The Last time that I saw you were at my brother Restee, your father's funeral. You always had a nice smile. I remember when you attended my Thanksgiving's dinner in 2018. Most all the family were there. You loved my Carrot & chocolate cake & everyone carried some home. You are now in the arms of Jesus Christ. Aunt Margaret & Uncle Paul Aaron
