“ To the Wright Family; I am so sorry to hear of your lost; I am a former RPS nurse; each time i called downtown or visited, Deborah greeted me with her warm and generous smile and friendly nature. I kept in contact with her via email after I left RPS. Your mom, wife, love one frequently spoke of her family; I remember her telling me about marrying her "childhood sweetheart" and the love and pride she felt for her children and grandchildren; I could tell with each word and gesture that she loved you all and always felt loved. She was a kind, patient, understanding friend. I will truly miss her. My prayers are with you all.###imported-begin##etta plumber###imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psam37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##

“ To Fred, Jennifer, Deon and Family: On behalf of the White and Talley families, we wish to express our profound sympathy and sincerest condolences. We are saddened to learn of Deborah's passing. We do want you to know that our minds, hearts and prayers are with you and your family today and with Deborah as she rests in heaven above. We hope that you find comfort in knowing she meant so much to so many people. Even when she was just a little girl growing up in the Fulton area, she was always characterized by her angelic demeanor and persona which became more prominent as she grew into a young lady. Deborah has left an imprinted mark that renders this world a much better place because she was here. She will be greatly missed by all those who were fortunate enough to know her. God Bless you in your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Robert Talley, Sr. (Carolyn White-Talley)##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my deepest sympathy. I too have experienced the sorrow and loss associated with the death of someone you love. I have been able to find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). As we await the fulfillment of the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15, may you also rely on God for your strength and comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
