

Deborah C. Rhinehart

June 4, 1949 - February 16, 2005

Deborah(Debbie)Carmelita Rhinehart was born on June 4, 1949, in Baltimore, Maryland to Emma Lee and the late Abraham Rhinehart. She departed this life on February 16, 2005, after failing health and subsequent hospital stays. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Edmondson Senior High School. She was a Certified Nurse and worked at Sun Life Insurance Company and Maryland State Police. She was employed as a nurse and enjoyed working with elderly people. Deborah (Debbie) leaves to mourn: her son, Carlos Simms; daughter, Tracee Thomas; mother, Emma Lee; brother, Reginald Arnold; sister, Carria Delphine (Rhinehart). Additionally, she leaves to mourn: three grandchildren, Travon, with whom she shared a special bond of understanding and love, Tyrone and Kristina; two nephews, Roland Rhinehart and Donte Brown and two nieces, Terri Rhinehart and Simone Hope, whom she loved dearly; along with a host of other family members and friends, who will deeply miss her.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Deborah: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible tells at 1 Corinthians chapter 15 verse 26- "As the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." So one day soon God will get rid of death. What about Deborah? Please note Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." It is my hope that these thoughts comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible assures us at John 5:28,29 "The hour is coming in which all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you all find comfort from the holy scriptures, family, and friends.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##
