

Deborah Lynn Carroll-Sorrell

August 21, 1952 - June 8, 2011

DEBORAH L. SORRELL, affectionately known as “Debbie” was born to the late Charlotte and Calvin Tate on August 21, 1952. She departed this life suddenly on June 8, 2011.

Debbie completed her high school education at Southern High School in 1971. She then attended Bay College of Maryland where she received an Associate's Degree in arts and met her first husband, Dennis Lindsey. She later married Howard “Montey” Sorrell. Upon graduation, she worked at Harbison- Walker Brick Yard for fifteen year as a brick layer. She later worked at Carr-Lowery Glass Company and several other factories before retiring in 2007.

Debbie was baptized at New Rose of Sharon as a young adult. She joined Zion Baptist Church on Christian experience in 2010.

If you met Debbie once, you felt as if you'd known her for a lifetime. Debbie was a very outspoken and charismatic person with a smile that could light up any room. She enjoyed shopping and was a kind-hearted, loving and caring person who was loved by many.

Deborah was the proud mother of three children: Tondra, Tiffany and Brandon ( Who preceded her in death).

She leaves to mourn: her loving fiance', James Addison; two daughters, Tondra and Tiffany; seven grandchildren, Kendra, India, Jasmine, Cortez, La'Keira, Kyree and Kayla; two special aunts, Gwendolyn Brown and Binta Karim; and a host of other friends and relatives.

“ Condolences to the family and may Jehovah bless you during this difficult time. I am adding a scripture that will bring comfort to you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

You have my deeest symphathy.
