

Deborah D. Jones

September 14, 1951 - December 27, 2006

Deborah Jones was the daughter of Doris and Ruben Dashield. She was born on September 14, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 27, 2006, after fighting for the last five years with many illnesses. Deborah has no more pain. She has given her hand to her Lord and Savior. She was married to the late Robert E. Jones. From that marriage they bore five children, Yvonne who preceded her in death, Roberdette, Robert who preceded her in death, Delrod and Darryl. She received her education from the Baltimore City public schools. After having all her kids, she went back to school to pursue and received her nursing degree. She immediately started work as a private duty nurse for the sick. Deborah loved to help people especially the elderly. She dedicated a lot of her time as a volunteer nurse. She was an active member of Emmanuel Christian Community Church since joining in or around 1989, where she was a nurse. She performed nursing workshops on taking blood pressure, nursed at funeral services at the church and away from the church. Deborah would go wherever she was called to go. Deborah enjoyed helping and caring for people at her church until her illnesses prohibited her. Deborah was that kind of loving, caring, generous and not to mention a strong woman who believed in family. Family to her was the love she gave and extended to her kids, grandkids, great-grandkids, sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews, other family and not to mention neighboring kids and friends. Wherever she lived everyone was welcomed to come to visit or stay. Deborah was just that kind of person. If she said you could stay, everyone knew you could. She was an incredible and unusual loving person. To know her was surely a blessing. Deborah was very nurturing to her kids and later her grandkids and great-grandkids who she all had to raise throughout her life. Her joy was her kids and grandkids. Deborah also had her joy for singing and dancing. To know her was to love her. Deborah will surely be missed. She has touched the lives of so many through her walk in life. Left to cherish her memory are: three children, Roberdette Jean Jones, Delrod Charles Jones and Daryl Eugene Jones; seven grandkids, Skakeara, Davon, Robert, Shavonne, Brayá, Little Daryl and Dalawn; two great grandkids, Daviyon and Malaza; her long-time dear friend, June; four sisters, Neola, Sandra, Pamela and Kathy; two brothers, Robert and Charles and a host of loving nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello Jones 's ! May you all find comfort in knowing that our heavenly father knows how we feel when we lost some one in death. . The bible helps us to get some uplifting thoughts from our heavenly father. The time is coming when no one will ever be sick or die again as Isa.33:24 say, that is great news. We look forward to a wonderful future very soon. I hope the few thoughts have been some comfort to you all. My sincere condolences. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##
