

Deborah Dorsey

October 5, 1951 - October 1, 2002

Deborah Jean Dorsey, born Deborah Jean Hope, was the daughter of Willie James Hope and the late Christine Elizabeth Hope. Deborah was born on October 5, 1951 in Sarasota, Florida. She departed this life on October 1, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Deborah and her family moved to Baltimore at a very young age. She received her education from Booker T. Washington and Edmondson High School. Deborah began her career in the medical field in the early 1980's. She retired from St. Joseph's Hospital as an Instrument Technician, due to her struggle with Chronic Hypertension and Diabetes. Although Deborah's health was a constant battle, she managed to solely care for her terminally ill mother and stepfather. Deborah didn't stop there, even though her health continued to fail, she still offered unconditional love, support and care to her disabled father. Deborah was certainly a precious angel. In her passing she leaves to mourn: two daughters, Yolanda Yvette Griffin and Tesha Monique Dorsey; two sons, Everette Lloyd Dorsey and Randolph Mayers Jr.; two granddaughters, India Iyanna Griffin and Jasmine DeShauna Devone; one grandson, Brandon Corey Griffin; son-in-law, Anthony D. Griffin; sisters, Darlene Hope, Vonzella Hope, Shaunda Hope, Naomi Hope, Sharon Golphin, Cheryl IHEME, and Karen Hughes, (sisters, Patricia Hill and Clarice Hughes preceded her in death); brothers, William Hughes Jr., Michael Hughes and Pete Hope; two brothers-in-law, Bishop Dennis Golphin and Prince IHEME; two sisters-in-law, Philomena Hughes and Lisa Hughes; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends, including Willamay Steger,

Rhonda Darden Betty Doyle, Carrie Jackson and Rhondetta Hamilton.
