“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I offer my most sincere condolences to you all at this time. The death of a loved one is truly the hardest thing we have to deal with in this life, and it was never God's purpose for us to die. Because of the rebellion of Adam and Eve and Satan is the reason why we die today. But thanks be to our God Jehovah who has made provision through his son Jesu to put an end to sickness and death, and bring the dead back to life. 1st Cor 15: 21,22 talks about this. It says, "For since death is through a man (Adam), resurrection of the dead is also through a man. "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Jesus gave his precious life so that we could live. As he himself stated at John 10,10; I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance." Through Jehovah"s love for sending his only-begotten son, we will have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones again. May you find much comfort and hope in the scriptures.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
