

Deborah A. Ewing

October 9, 1968 - March 10, 2016

Deborah Ann Ewing, daughter of the late Daniel Ewing and Deborah Duffy, was born on October 9, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 10., 2016 after a lengthy illness.

Deborah attended Baltimore City public Schools. Layer on in her life, she attended Baltimore City Community College to obtain her G.E.D. She was eager to continue in the path to better her education. Throughout her years, she maintained employment at a Poultry Produce Factory and held various Environmental Service positions while working for Bowie State University and an Office Corporation.

Deborah always had a way with people because of her sincere personality, which would make you love her so much more no matter if she was right or wrong. To know Deborah was to love someone that was absolutely one-of-a-kind. She loved being around her family and friends and was always devoted to being in her grandchildren presence.

Deborah grew up in a Baptist Church and continued being affiliated in other churches throughout Baltimore City.

Deborah married once, to Raymond Hansley.

Deborah had one daughter, Diane Carroll and two grandchildren who were her joy in life no matter the circumstances. She loved her brother and sisters dearly. Her sister, Bernadette Duffy, preceded her in death. She also has an Aunt Bernadette Carter that she looked up to because of her encouragement and guidance she always gave to Deborah.

Deborah leaves to mourn her daughter, Diane Carroll; two grandchildren, Dyquis and Diamond Carroll; brother, William Duffy; her sister, Linda D.; husband, Raymond Hansley; mother-in-law, Emma Hansley; sister-in-law, aunts; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
