

Deborah F. Gray

July 12, 1951 - July 24, 2010

Deborah Francine Gray, daughter of the late Daniel and Margaret Virginia Gray, was born July 12, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Deborah was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. She was raised in a christian home and at an early age She received her christian education at St. Phillips Lutheran Church. Deborah was employed with the Baltimore City Department of Human Resources, but spent the vast majority of her professional career with the Department of Economics. Deborah also received a certificate in Culinary Arts.

“Deborah” or Big Debbie” as she was commonly known was a very quiet, strong and courageous woman who loved spending time with her daughter and grandsons. Deborah also enjoyed family gatherings where her infectious laugh would start a chain reaction of uncontrollable laughter from all present. She will be forever remembered for her potato salad and collard greens. Deborah's true passion was reading and believe it or not the bases for many of her adventurous stories.

God saw that the road was getting rough; the hills were hard to climb. On July 24, 2010 Deborah's true helping spirit was no longer needed on Earth. Her work here was done.

Deborah leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Margaret Gray; step-daughter, Wendy Torrench; seven grandchildren, Derrick, DeShawn, Shanya, Shiniya, Mark, Treyon, and Troya; three sisters, Laverne, Yvonne, and Maxine; six brothers, Daniel Jr., Richard, Ronald, Arnold, Anthony (Warren and Michael preceded her in death); stepmother, Bernice Payne-Gray; four step-sisters, Dorothy, Brenda, and Justine (Charlotte preceded her in death); ex-husband, Eugene Bishop; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, aunts, uncle other relatives and friends.
