

Deborah Hayne

February 12, 1956 - April 3, 2013

DEBORAH HAYNES, daughter of Lemore Jacobs and the late Leroy Hamilton, was born on February 12, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on April 3, 2013.

She was a graduate of Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She was gainfully employed at Keswick Nursing Home for over twenty years, where she worked faithfully in Environmental Services.

She dedicated her life to Christ at an early age and was a former member of Antioch Baptist Church for over ten years. She prayed without ceasing and kept her soul anchored in Christ. She possessed a warm and friendly spirit and demonstrated the characteristics of a Christian woman. She was a faithful friend to those she embraced.

Deborah was a devoted mother and grandmother. She relished the opportunity to spend quality time with her children and grandchildren alike. They were her reason for being; but most of all, she cherished the relationship shared with her mother... for she embodied the strength Deborah needed to withstand the burdens of life. Her favorite scripture in which she quoted daily over the phone with her mother was Psalms 30:5... "Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning."

Being surrounded by her family was pure pleasure for her. She enjoyed their company, the laughter and yes, the good home cooked food.

Deborah enjoyed a plethora of music from the decade of The Beatles, from the message of Soul Music, the simplicity of Neil Diamond, the freedom of Rod Stewart to the fulfillment of Gospel Music.

She especially enjoyed quiet time alone, surfing the internet to capture forgotten series of Dark Shadows, Dallas, Knots Landing and Dynasty just to name a few-and lets not forget about her daily SOAPS!!

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Lemoire Jacobs; three children, Adrienne, Dwayne Jr. and Keith; five brothers, Anthony, Glenn, Allen, Kenneth and Gregory; one sister, Latondria; three stepsisters, Carolyn, Linda and Edith; one stepbrother, Charles Jr.; one brother-in-law, Morris and four sisters-in-law, Vanetta, Beverly, Pamela and Elyse; seven grandchildren, JeQuelle, DeAndra, Darius, Dwayne, Isia, Travon and Deborah; one maternal aunt, Ann Kent; her special auntie, Lilamae; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort be with your family. We can find comfort during these times by focusing on the God's promises for the future. Isaiah 33:24 says there will be a time when "no resident will say I am sick." Also Revelation 21:4 says "death will be no more."

Allen - April 20, 2013 at 06:29 AM

“ Mommy, I will miss you so much. I am just glad that we were closer than we had been in a long time. I love you always and will keep you forever in my heart.
