

Deborah Jackson

July 22, 1957 - October 1, 2002

Deborah Lawson-Jackson was the daughter of Johnnie Mae Lawson and the late Willie Lawson Sr. She was born July 22, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Tuesday, October 1, 2002 the Lord called Deborah home. In 1989 Deborah received the Lord in her life. She was baptized and became a member of St. Paul Baptist Church. In 2001, Deborah joined Ames Memorial Church. Deborah was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Mergenthaler Vocational High School where she studied cosmetology. In 1988 Deborah graduated from Automation Academy Nursing School with high honors. On December 16, 2001, Deborah married Kenneth Jackson. Deborah had a zest for life. She made friends wherever she went. She was outgoing, enthusiastic and humorous. Deborah was a giving person. She would give you whatever she had. Deborah leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Kenneth Jackson; mother, Johnnie Mae Lawson; daughter, Lakiah Henson; son, Corey Barber; five sisters, Mae, Theresa, Sherry, Sue and Tonya; two grandchildren, Arionna and Kenneth; son-in-law, Todd Henson; mother-in-law, Joann Cherry; five nieces, four nephews and a host of other relatives and friends including a loving friend, Dwight Ewell.

“ He healeth the broken hearted...Psalm 147:3 Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
