

Deborah Darlene Johnson

September 19, 1956 - January 1, 2016

Deborah Darlene Johnson traded her earthly home for place in the kingdom of God. She traded her long suffering for the peaceful waters on the other side. Deborah leaves to cherish her memory her loving Mother, Carolyn Adrena Johnson, Sister Darlette Johnson and three brothers, Ellis Johnson, Keith Johnson(Gayle),George Johnson(Sandra),Two Nephews,Cederic and Deron Johnson, Three nieces, Candice and Raven Johnson and Adria Mayo.

She was preceded in death by her Father, Thomas Ellis Johnson, III (Harmonizing Four), and Grandfather, Thomas Johnson, Jr. (Harmonizing Four) and Grandmother, Sarah E. Johnson, Maternal Grandfather Ernest Walker and Grandmother Mable Hunter and an abundance of loving cousins.

Deborah was educated in the Richmond Public School Systems and attended Virginia Commonwealth University before starting her company, dVinedesign where she created, captivated and delivered high quality program, graphics, magazines and books for numerous genres. Her life work was to give awesome praise in graphics and desktop publishing. Although she was always humble, God gave her the opportunity to share her skills all over the world. Her trademark was the dove of peace.

Deborah loved St. Peter Baptist Church and served as Chairperson of the Missions and Evangelism Ministry, Pastoral Appreciation Ministry, Facilitator for Special Youth Ministry Empowerment Sessions, Church Administrator, Media Ministry and her greatest love the Agape Singers and the Senior Choir.

“ You was in my 3rd grade classroom (Mrs. Ware) in Woodville Elementary School. I was some kind of "crazy" about you. I remember your family living across the street from Armstrong High School's gym on 31st St. Your dad (may he rest in peace) was an awesome bass singer for that great gospel group The Harmonizing Four. I remember your brothers Ellis Jr. and Keith. We both were together during the transition from Woodville to JFK High School while in the 7th grad. I tried so desperately to contact you through the social media (facebook and classmates.com), only to find out yesterday during the wake of my cousin (Sandra "Sandy" Wallace) that you went on to glory to be with the Lord. May you rest in peace my beloved Deborah and be blessed among the angels in heaven.

“ I would like to send comfort of love to the family of Deborah Johnson. I met and worked with Deborah when she came to work as a trainer at The Department of Corrections. She always came to work with the most beautiful smile and she always put God into her work. She showed that she loved her family and that she did everything for them. I will never forget, one day we was having lunch together and we were talking about the Soul Seekers She told me that Keith was her brother and her family was from Hanover. In the end I knew most of her family. We became the best of friends and we always enjoyed each other company. Deborah knew the Lord and the Lord knew her. He have work for her to do in Heaven and she will enjoy the work because she loved training people and sharing his words with them. I can see that beautiful smile and I will always remember her by that smile.

God Love All of us!

“ To the family of Ms. Deborah Johnson,
First, I offer you my deepest sympathies for your loss. But I'd like to say that I met Deborah through classes given by her church. She was talented and giving, her love and patience in helping others learn were outstanding! Isn't it wonderful to know she gave a gift of knowledge to so many others, I will keep her memory alive for this very reason. God bless you all and comfort you at this time.
