

Deborah M. Jones

February 12, 1947 - May 20, 2014

Deborah Marie Jones was the eldest daughter of the late Herbert and Dollie Thaniel born on February 12th, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She left for glory in the early hours of May 20th, 2014 at her grandson's home after extensive illness.

She loved Jesus whole heartedly and it was that love that was the cornerstone of her faith. She joined in membership at many congregations over the years, but did not necessarily need the confines of a church to worship the lord, for her faith was so deeply rooted that she often found solace in private fellowship with Christ in her home.

Deborah matriculated through the Baltimore City Public School System culminating with her graduation in 1965 from Patterson High School. Though this was the extent of her formal education her business savvy and meticulous attention to details rivaled that of Corporate CEOs, thus evident in her 33 years of service to United States Federal Government.

She married the late Rufus J. Jones in 1966 and from this union they bore one child Bridget. Deborah had strong maternal spirit, loving nature, and welcoming persona so even though she only birthed one child, she mothered many.

Deborah was a leader, the rebel, and the person best known for getting it done. She was also best known as the “Social Butterfly” because when Deborah was part of something you knew it was going to be a good time! Deborah was intense and strong willed as well as loving, she spoke her mind unapologetically and lived her life often in contrast to public opinion unconcerned with “going with grain”. However the depths of her kindness were bottomless and abundant caring for any of God’s children regardless of her own situation.

Along with her parents, Deborah is reunited with her late brother Herbert Jr. Left to live in her legacy; her daughter Bridget and son-in law Sam, four grandchildren Brandon, David, Alex, and Brianna, a sister Pamela and brother-in law Dwayne, a nephew Michael, nieces Arielle and Destiny, a great nephew Michael Jr., a niece-in law Chavella and a beloved friend of 30 plus years Mabel as well as host of cousins and friends.

“ Dear Family, my condolences are with you all, for the loss of your dear loved one. During this difficult time may you find comfort in knowing that the God of all tender mercies hates death. Revelation 21:4 He views death as an enemy of mankind. And he longs to do away with death forever, and bring back all those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again - Isaiah 25:8. If you have any questions go to www.Jw.org.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Jones Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our loved ones have the hope of a resurrection back to a beautifully restored paradise earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
