

Deborah Lena Robinson

December 13, 1944 - January 30, 2010

Her life's journey here on earth has ended, but her new life has just begun. Deborah Lena Robinson departed this life on January 30, 2010. She was born December 13, 1944 in the Fulton Hill area of Richmond, VA, to the late Florence and Melvin Sargent. Deborah is predeceased by her brothers, Sherman, Henry, Robert and Lee Fleming and her sister Mercelle Gattett. In June 1962, she graduated from Armstrong High School and two years later she married her childhood friend, Floyd J. Robinson on July 21, 1964. Deborah always believed that her greatest accomplishment in life was her daughter. After two unsuccessful attempts at having children, her prayers were answered on February 20, 1979. On that day her only child, Tamara was born. Deborah was known as Mom or Ms. Deborah to many but to most of the family she was Aunt Lena. She was a very social person and always the life of the party. She was caring, fun loving, direct, and sensitive, but always honest and always willing to help however she could. Deborah's love for God and faith in His teachings helped her during her struggle until the very end. She had a firm belief in the Serenity prayer and referred to it often. She would want to be remembered for being a wonderful, loving mother, sister and friend. Her sweet memories are left to be cherished by her husband, Floyd J. Robinson; daughter Tamara Denise Robinson; siblings, Sylvester Fleming, Lawrence Sargent, Mary Alice Monroe, Audrey Sargent and George Sargent, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Deborah Lena Robinson. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
