

Ms. Deborah Carol Lloyd

July 31, 1954 - January 14, 2026

Deborah Carol Lloyd, was born on July 31, 1954, to Clinton and Bertha Lloyd in Baltimore, MD. She peacefully departed this life on January 14, 2025. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend who left behind a legacy of love, creativity, and devotion. She attended Eastern High School and soon after received her Sew and Tailor Certificate from a Baltimore Voc-Tech Program of study. Her life was marked by hard work, talent, and generosity.

She was employed by Katzenberg in the early 1970's where her gift as a seamstress blossomed. She later became employed by Maryland Transportation Authority as a toll collector, Giovonni's, Woodholme Country Club and other jobs which included the joy of being a consultant for Mary Kay. She dabbled in building businesses, two of which were: La Tasty Pastries and Sew Mystical Love. She carried out all of her work with dedication and grace.

Beyond her labor life, Deborah was a gifted artisan and was known for her ability to create beauty with her hands (i.e. stylish outfit creations, beautiful greeting cards, useful and practical crafts, and delectable desserts). Her passions extended to traveling, dancing, savoring good food, and cherishing every precious moment spent with her family.

She was baptized at the First United Church of Jesus Christ (Apostolic) under Bishop Monroe Saunders Sr. and rededicated her life in recent years.

Deborah leaves to treasure her memory, a loving and faithful daughter, Sirena Alford (Steven); her cherished eldest son, Lamont Georges (Nicole); nine awesome grandchildren: Dayshalon, Briona, Steven Jr., Sha'Nea, Malichi, Mekhi, Sierra, Micah, and Mikhail; four precious great-grandchildren: Peyton, Ashton, Legend and Harmony Rose. She also leaves behind three special Uncles: Welton Lloyd, Eugene Drayton (Yvonne), and Marvin Fleet, a daughter of love, Mika; the Lloyd and Johnson families; two high school friends of 58 year, Lois Butler and Judy Allen; a very close N.C. friend, Kim; chosen and preferred caretaker and friend, Rachel Heggins, as well as a host of other family members and many dear friends. She was preceded in death by her granddaughter Deja' and youngest son, Pierre Georges Jr.

Deborah's warmth, creativity, and unwavering love touched everyone who really knew her. Her memory will live on in the lives she enriched and the memories she created. "Though we cannot see you, your love surrounds us still. Rest peacefully, knowing you will forever remain in our hearts."

“ My wife and I had the pleasure of meeting Ms. Lloyd at a Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) function in Baltimore, MD. I remember her kindness, friendliness, outgoing personality, giving and caring for others. She had a unique way to find humor in many things. She was a delightful and loving woman of God. To be absent from the body and be present with the Lord, whom she knew and loved brings hope in knowing that we will see her again someday on the glad Reunion Day. Sirena and family, may your hearts and minds be flooded with wonderful and precious memories of times shared with your mother.

“ *A woman with great sights and many experiences! A wealth of knowledge, witty and humorous! Giving and kind. That's what I know about you. Thank you Deborah for choosing me.
Prayers and condolences filled with Gods grace to uphold you daily... especially in those little moments when grief sneaks in and the tears become a faucet because of that tiny memory that flashed before you. Remember, God is there and it's alright ❤️🙏

“ Debbie, I'm glad we were able to reconnect after many years. Life had taken us in different directions. Thank you for being my high school classmate. We had lots of fun and always looked out for each other. I'm glad I got to spend your 70th birthday celebrating together. What a tea party it was. You were so happy. I will remember that smile for ever. Every time I have a cup of hot tea, I will think of you. It broke my heart seeing you in pain and there was nothing I could do to ease your pain. You put your trust in God and you said you were prepared to go to your Eternal Home. I know God has received you with open arms. I love you and will miss you. Take your rest Deb. I will see you when I get there. 🥹❤️
