

Deborah A. Pearmon

February 21, 1952 - February 16, 2020

Deborah Ann Pearmon known as "Debbie" , made her presence in life on February 21,1952 to the late Thomas and Sarah Pearmon in Freetown, Maryland. On Sunday, February 16, 2020, the Lord called one of his angel's home,but not to soon before spending time away with her loved ones.

Debbie received her education in the Anne Arundel County School system, where she received her high school diploma from Northeast Senior High. Her Christian education began at Hall United Methodist Church. As Debbie visited different churches throughout her adult life her faith eventually lead her to the spiritual teaching of Rev. Ronald Green, pastor of Sons of God of Eternal Life Church located in Baltimore, Maryland. Here is where Debbie was baptized and born again. She truly loved the Lord and believed in Him wholeheartedly.

Known as an avid athlete, Debbie played an array of sports as a teen and young adult.She loved horseback riding, tennis , softball and bowling. In her mature years she continued her sportsmanship in women's softball,, holding positions at 3rd base and home plate for the Clipperettes, Cedar Hill Roots, and a fast and slow-pitch team to be on the other end catching her balls when trying the next runner out. She also spent many years on the Jolly Rogers"Saturday Night " Bowling League at Bowl America.

Her work history in the clerical sector started at NASA, where she worked for several years in the aeronautics and space administration department as a secretary. After other employment throughout her life, she decided to shift her focus towards the car and food industry as a reception and cashier , where she retired out happily.

Although Debbie was raised in the county, the majority of her adulthood was spent in Baltimore City. Here is where she raised her only child, Yolonda, who was her pride and joy. When you saw one, you saw the other. They were more like sisters and her best friends, than mother and daughter. Their love for each other was as strong as a magnetic field.

One would find Debbie to be a passionate and graceful person. STUBBORN, yes but oh so loving. She was considered as a people's person; making new friends wherever she went. You felt her love through her very affectionate bone-crushing hugs. One wouldn't need a chiropractor after receiving one of those puppies. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends during cookouts, playing board and card games, and most of all family reunion. You knew Debbie was having a good time whenever you heard her out-bursting, jolly and contagious laughs. Her most joyful entertainment in life was travel. One thing she was known to say, I'm not letting any grass grow under my feet and I'm already there on that trip. She was also known for her singling and cooking. Back in the day, she and her brother Anthony would sing duets together, and if you like to eat, you knew to go to Debbie's for a good home cooked meal.

In her memory, Debbie's leaves to cherish;her daughter Yolonda; son -in-law Johnny Bell, who she adored and doted over; step-grandchildren Le'Renton and Ya'Meshia Rich; step- great granddaughter A'yanah Rich; four sisters, Florence Coates,Joan Pearmon, Lorraine Hill and Patricia Chase;brother -in-law Leroy Hill; sister -in-law Franchetta Pearmon; and a hos of aunts, uncles,nieces, nephews, cousins , and friends. She had special place in her heart for Sonia Lynn who she practically raised as her her second daughter;

Dawn Gregory as her adopted daughter -in-law Christ; her extended daughters who attended Howard University with Yolonda (Melinda Riley, Crystal Turner, Alex Mills, Tosha Smith , Keya Beale , and Simone Baldwin) and the ladies who worked with her daughter at NEI, who she fondly name her girls. She also cherished her closest friends; Earldene Johnson(her road dog) Mary Macon (her traveling companion) and Carol Holly; special cousin Sylvia Pearmon, and truly appreciated her long- term associate for over 40 years, Arey Flemming.
