

Deborah Williams

October 17, 1940 - November 5, 2023

DEBORAH K. WILLIAMS, wife of the late Clarence Williams, daughter of the late Leroy Kee and Bessie Savage, was born on October 17, 1940 in Suffolk, Virginia. Deborah gained her wings and went home to be with the LORD on November 5, 2023.

Deborah received her education in the Virginia and Baltimore public school systems. She gained employment with the Federal government in 1968. Deborah continued her employment until she retired in 2014.

She enjoyed worshipping in church, reading her bible, traveling ,playing the lottery, playing card games with family, cooking holiday meals to share with family, watching television, singing the song “MAKE THAT MOVE” and just spending time with family, especially the grandchildren.

She leaves to cherish her fond memory: her children, Kenneth, Theresa, Karen and Erick; son-in-law, Don; honorary daughter, Bonita; sisters, Bessie and Virginia; brother, Quintin Baker. She also leaves her grandchildren, Craig, Ericka, Nakeisha, Ebony, Erion, Latonya, Shannon, and Zoe (her grandson, Montrell preceded her in death); great-grandchildren, Kalah, Jordan, Morgan, Kaleah, Rickie, Rashad, Rylee, Nia, Aniya, Samiya, Nasir, Travis, Trayon; great-great-grandchildren, Ariyonna, Avianna, Aubree and Aaliyah; and a host of other relatives and friends
