“ Dear Yawn Family:

Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss. I know Deborah Ann was loved and will be missed. Death is never an easy part of life to except; death is not natural. We were created to live-forever [Genesis 2:17] that is why we grieve when someone we love dies. However, at Acts 24:15 the Bible provide hope for our dead loved ones, it is called the Resurrection Hope, it reads: “and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” Jesus Christ had faith in this Hope, and he wanted us to have faith too. This truth is proven in the fact that he performed a resurrection of his friend, Lazarus, right here on earth to provide a foregleam of the wonderful blessings ahead. (John 11: 28-44) I hope you will read these scriptures in your personal copy of the Bible and may Jehovah God be with you all during your time of need. (Psalms 83:18)

*Sincerely,
Sister Hughes*
