August 14, 1958 - February 7, 2009

DEBORAH ANTOINETTE GRIFFIN, the daughter of Laura Delores Fleming and Carlie Streat, was born August 14, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. On February 7, 2009, angels came, gave her wings and took her home to peace. "Debbie," as she was fondly known, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She successfully graduated. She also attended PSI School for computer training and completed the courses, graduating with honors. She was recently employed at Genesis Elder Care until her illness forced her to take a leave. There was nothing she didn't want to do and couldn't accomplish. Debbie loved life and enjoyed it to the fullest. She made friends wherever she went and will be missed by everyone who knew her. She met and married Nathaniel Griffin Sr., her soul mate, twenty-two years ago. They made a great team together. They shared everything together, especially a special kind of love for each other. Debbie believed in God and entrusted her life to Him. She served God in many capacities. She loved to hear good preaching and especially her gospels. She had no favorites, she loved them all. She leaves in this life: her husband, Nathaniel Griffin Sr., daughter, Katrina Yates; two stepdaughters, Michelle and Talithia; stepson, Nathaniel Griffin Jr.; ten grandchildren; three brothers, Michael Fleming, Steven Streat and Dennis Streat; two sisters, Carlette Streat and Denise Streat Lee; three sisters-in-law, Valerie Fleming, Joan Phillips and Delores Owens; nephew, Terry Streat; grandparents, Bernard and Sarah Fleming; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To The Family and Friends, I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. God’s Kingdom (Mat6:10) will end wars, sickness, famine, even death itself. No more doctors, hospitals, or disease of any kind at all. “No resident will say: ‘I am sick.’” (Isaiah33:24) No more funerals, wakes, cemeteries, morgues, or the misery that accompanies them. Death, our relentless enemy, will be vanquished at last. God “will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.”—Isaiah 25:8. Continue to rely on the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this most difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this Bible-based message.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Death is so painful to a family and we all go through it sooner or later, but in reality death was never God's purpose for us. Death only came about because of the sin of Adam and Eve. (Romans 5:12) To undo what Adam brought upon us, Jehovah had to send us his son, Jesus, to pay the ransom price to buy us out of sin and death. 1st Cor 15:22 states that fact. It says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." In harmony with that thought, Romans 5:19 says, "For just as through the disobedience of the one man (Adam) many were constituted sinners, likewise also through the obedience of the one person (Jesus) many will be constituted righteous. Fortunately for us, Jehovah God did not hold us responsible for the choice Adam made, but he gives us all an opportunity for eternal life, because of his great love for us. John 3:16 reminds us, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. Yes everlasting life, not death, is Jehovah's purpose for us. One day Debra will live again, because Jesus paid that ransom price, and faithful ones will see her, as well as millions of others who have died, come back to life. John 5:28,20, May the wonderful promises of God be a sustaining force in your life, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
