“ My husband and I knew Brian when he did work for us at our home in High View. He comforted me when my husband passed away 3 years ago. I heard lovely stories about his wife and children. I did not know he was ill until I heard this week of his death. I am shocked and sorry. Please accept my deepest condolences.

“ You touched the hearts of many,
you presence still linger in our souls,
its so hard to say goodbye,
why so early in life,
even though you are gone,
you'll never be forgotten, You'll be missed by many,
its brings tears to my eyes,
that this is the final goodbye,
rest in peace,
may you live in peace for eternity.

“ I met Brian only a few times but my heart has bled for him and his family during his sickness and now death. May Brian find rest in the arms of Jesus and may his wife and children find the comfort in this very dark hour that ONLY Christ can give.

“ Psalms 116:15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.
Our dear brother will never be forgotten. He will live on in our hearts, until we meet him again on resurrection morning. We cherish our memories of him, and we honor his life, and his unwavering faith the Lord Jesus Christ. Brian never stopped believing, and now he is resting in the arms of the One he trusted. Our brother, our friend, our Brian....may He rest in peace.

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy.' May you find comfort in knowing that our loving heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our enemy 'to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!
