

Deeandra Seaman Alfonso

March 4, 1959 - January 7, 2018

DeéAndra Seaman Alfonso was born March 4, 1959 to Julia Williams and the late Henry Seaman in Brooklyn, New York. On January 7, 2018, she was called to the Master above to receive her crown of glory.

DeéAndra accepted her Muslim/Islam faith in February 2002 at the age of 43 years and was united with the Dawn Islamic Mosque where she served as a member. In June 2002, she married her soul-mate and dear friend, Frank Harris in Brooklyn, New York. Their union was blessed with four children.

She was employed by the Jewish Nursing Care Agency as a certified nursing assistant (CNA) for 12 years. In her leisure, she enjoyed fishing and running.

She will be remembered for her glorious smile, adorable eyes, love of family and a strong faith in her higher power. She was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, niece, cousin and friend.

DeéAndra would want to be remembered as a loving, kind and considerate person, but most of all being at peace. She was indeed one of the most precious gifts God has given us.

She was called home to the pearly gates of heaven to unite with her loved ones that preceded her. Deeandra leaves to cherish her loving memory to devoted spouse, Frank Harris; two daughters, Sahia Martin (Keith Martin) and Seamone Regis (Ricardo Regis); three granddaughters, Kay-la Knight (Ramel), Camille Martin, Areyna Regis; one grandson, Ricardo Regis II; caring mother, Julia Williams; two sisters, Kidra Payne (Arnold) and Beatrice Neal, one brother, Anthony Seaman; devoted aunt, Deanna and Bernice; in-laws, Pamela Harris Bailey (Olando) and Jacquelyn Harris, one step-son, Frankie Johnson, one step-daughter, Niecy Cook; a host of other close relatives and dear friends.

“ *Dear Alfonso Family,
My name is Siniyah and I am very sorry for your loss. I would like to share with you a scripture from Revalation 20:12,13, “I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened; it is the scroll of life. The dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds. And the sea gave up the dead in it, and death and the Grave gave up the dead in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds.”*

*Sincerely,
Siniyah*

“ I was already missing you when you relocated. It hurt my heart when I learned of your passing. You were always kind and very supportive of both Je'Siah and I. I will miss our talks and the laughs we shared from the backyard to the front stoop. Thank you for ALWAYS being there (apart of my "it takes a village"). WE SERVE A MIGHTY GOD...I don't need to know the how? Or why? Just that GOD needed you most. You will forever be in my heart. I LOVE You!!! To the family, I extend my heartfelt condolences on your loss. Be comforted as you go forward and know that you always have an Angel in your mist.... Be Blessed – Stephanie #1554
