

Deellear M. Royster

March 26, 1920 - January 20, 2005

Deellear Morallis Royster, affectionately known as "Dee", was born on March 26, 1920 to the late Emmanuel Morallis and Edith Moore. She peacefully entered eternal rest on Thursday, January 20, 2005. Deellear completed her primary and secondary education in the public school system in the City of Baltimore. She was a member of the 1938 Class of Douglass High School. She then pursued additional training by completing Cortez Peters Business School. She began her career working for the Health, Education, and Welfare Bureau in Washington, D.C. and Edgewood, Maryland. In March 1943, she was employed by the Social Security Administration in the Numerical Register section. At the time of her retirement, 1979, she was a supervisor in the Social Security Administration Disability Claims Processing Unit. Dee was united in holy matrimony to Charles Wing. From this union her loving daughter, Charlotte was born. After the death of her husband, Charles T. Wing in 1951, she remained single until she met Elijah Royster, affectionately known as "Jack", who she married on February 20, 1965. Jack departed this life on August 19, 1995. Deellear was a dedicated member of the Mt. Winans United Methodist Church since childhood, She served as Vice President of the United Methodist Women, a member of the Trustee Board, chairperson for Women's Day, Lay Delegate to the Methodist Conventions, member of the Finance Committee, and served on numerous other religious committees. Deellear had a unique ability to organize many successful fund raising events for the church. She is still remembered for the many trips she orchestrated (i.e., the World Fair held in New York City, Sight and Sound Theater, etc.). Prior to her illness, she played a vital role in securing the deed for Mt. Winans United Methodist Church which was the property of Sharp Street United Methodist Church. Deellear was a devoted member of the Order of Eastern Star, Annie S. Banks Chapter 42. She was an esteemed Grand Worthy Matron. Due to her commitment and dedication, she was bestowed a lifetime membership. Traveling was one of her favorite pastimes. She and her husband Jack traveled extensively. They particularly enjoyed traveling in their motor home with their family, friends and members of the "EZ Travelers." In addition to her daughter Charlotte Deellear Wing, she leaves to mourn: devoted granddaughter, Kimberly Camphor and her husband, Arnold Camphor Jr.; two great-grandchildren, Markez Elijah and Kennadi Rhyan; niece, Cecilia Jones, cousin, Alan Harmon and his wife, Thelma; devoted friend, Blanche Powell; and a host of relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Deellear M. Royster

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Death is something we never get used to. The Bible gives soothing comfort for our grief. One such comforting passage is Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life". It is my hope that this divinely inspired passage gives you much solace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family, My condolences on the passing of your loved one. Please find comfort in Isaiah 26:19 which states, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]". What a wonderful hope the Bible holds out, we CAN and WILL see our loved ones again. Please keep this scripture in mind especially when you find yourself missing your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ We have truly lost a gem. You have my deepest sympathy. You are in my prayers. Just remember all the good times that we had with her. Know that she is in better place to suffer no more. She is rejoicing with the Lord, Momma Dell and most of all Daddy Jack.##imported-begin##Corinne Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May God continue to bless and keep you in his care. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Vera Wood##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM