“ Deidre P. S. Baker

“ Deidre loved my gremlins and my self from day 1 that we were introduced to her and Aunt Wendy on Baltimore Street. We all became more like family then just friends. She was there when I lost my youngest daughter, Lakiyah; and she's always been a fixture whether near or far. God knows best, and we are so blessed to have had her grace our lives with her presence and I will for ever be grateful. We love you now and always. Rest in paradise my angel.

“ We offer our deepest sympathy to the Baker family and relatives who, no doubt, will miss her dearly. The holy scriptures offer comfort with the words Jesus spoke at John 14:27. May you find solace in these words.
